

ORANGE

September 30 (October 1st)

This date was chosen because it is taken from their homes and provides an opportunity to set the stage for the coming school year.

Orange Shirt Day is also an opportunity for First Nations communities to come together in the spirit of reconciliation and for all children to come.

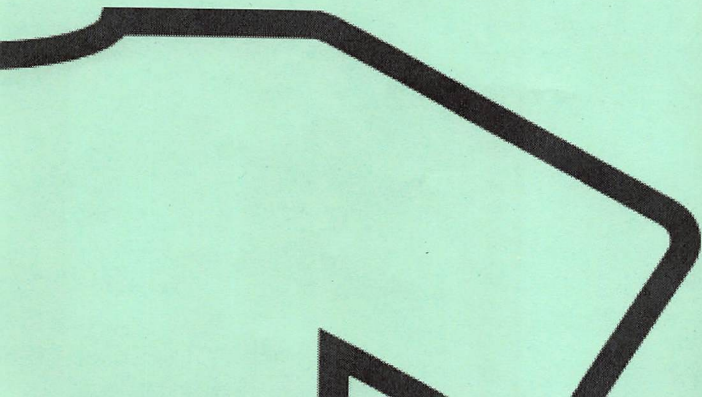

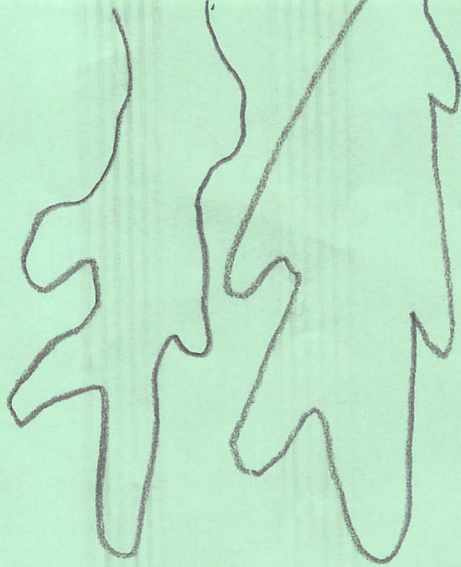

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

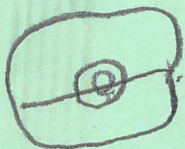

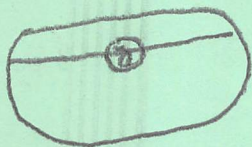

(Commemorate on October 1, 2018)

Because it is the time of year in which children were sent to residential schools, and because it is an important time for anti-racism and anti-bullying policies for the new year. <http://www.orangeshirtday.org/>

United Nations, local governments, schools and communities for reconciliation and hope for generations of

write a poem or create a design on the ners and that "every child matters".

write a poem or create a design on the
thers and that "every child matters".

ORAN

September 30 (

This date was chosen because taken from their homes
opportunity to set the stage
the coming school

Orange Shirt Day is also an opportunity for First Nations communities to come together in the spirit of reconciliation. Children to come.

